

NO TROUBLE AT BERKLEY

The Murdered Negro Buried Without Demonstration.

NO ARREST MADE SO FAR

The Military Still on Guard and the Coroner's Inquest Adjourned Until Friday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., October 25.—Notwithstanding persistent rumors to the effect that no information was given of the purpose to take Blount from the Berkley jail and lynch him, it is understood that a number of people in the town were aware Sunday night that rumors were circulated to that effect and they fully expected trouble of some kind, although probably not prepared to hear of the harsh measures which subsequently were adopted.

It is hinted very broadly that at least one of the town policemen was informed of a movement to take Blount's life, and that he did not keep the secret to himself, but imparted the information to several other people.

Discussing the arrest of Blount and the character of the negro, it is understood that the policeman remarked to several men in the party, that Blount would remain long in jail, as preparations were on foot to lynch him. It is also reported that this policeman even suggested to the men with whom he was discussing the matter that they could join the party if they wanted to do so.

MANY RUMORS.
Many rumors have been circulated about Norfolk to-day relative to the identity of the men who committed the crime and their reasons and purposes.

One man who is a close observer of the political situation in Norfolk county, was heard to state emphatically that politics was back of the murder. This man, for political reasons would not permit the use of his name, and would mention no names in connection with the affair. He ventured the statement that members of the Straightout faction were responsible for the scandal, and that their purpose was to strike back at the Fusionists.

Another report has it that the Fusionists and their allies had given the negroes so much liberty that the murder was the natural outbreak of whites who had suffered at their hands and that it was their purpose to stamp out negro rowdiness.

This morning about 2 o'clock a patrol of militia, while scouting around, ran across a negro man in the yard of Policeman Holloman in Montclair, and one of the party made an attempt to shoot the negro, and his piece missed fire. Before he could recover and reload, the mad made his escape.

Tridges that have been issued to the soldiers will not permit the rifles to have more than a single charge in them.

WANTED TO KILL OFFICER.

There are those who believe the unknown negro found on the Holloman lot was trying to effect an entrance through the rear of the house with a view to reaching and then assassinating Officer Holloman.

Holloman, who is the officer who in attempting to make arrest in Blount's alleged dive on Twelfth and Liberty Streets last Saturday night, was assaulted by Blount with a light lamp, the officer having three teeth knocked out with the others injured, besides receiving a bad scalp wound on the side of his head.

Upon the advice of Colonel A. M. Higgins the Berkley civil authorities sent five detectives to the funeral with a view of learning what was said and the sentiment of the negroes when largely assembled. It was feared to-day that the assembling of the blacks in such large numbers might tend to incite riot on the part of the negroes.

Colonel Higgins this afternoon said that the militia will remain in Berkley as long as Mayor Allen desires their services.

The coroner says he has not sufficient evidence yet to justify an arrest. He has, however, a joint investigation of the affair. The inquest into the killing was adjourned until Friday.

THE NORFOLK HORSE SHOW

Shirley Carter's Rappahannock's blue, yellow went to Portner Brothers' Jolly Boy and white to Mr. Luttrell's Eagle.

Roadsters brought on a field of twelve. This class excited the greatest enthusiasm, as the riders of the nonchalant horse in the lead. A lady drove a heavy harness horse before a Stanhope in this class and received most flattering applause.

The eternal fitness of things was not considered in the class and the lame, the blind took a shy at the ribbon.

Blue and a handsome silver cup went to "Clarence B." owned by Smythe Brothers. These brothers look and dress to much alike that no one could tell who which one drove the winners.

Mr. Pope's "Pentress" Hickory/Wood, and white to Mr. Perry's "Harry."

Ovation to Montague.

Governor Montague arrived at this stage of the programme and received an ovation.

Park four called out three teams, two of which were entered by Mrs. Grosvenor and the other by Mr. Dunlop, of Petersburg. Connelly drove the bay four, and Tommy Ryan was on the box behind the reins. Mr. Courtland Smith drove for Mr. Dunlop. Although Mr.

....The.... Knowing Ones.

Naturally come to this house for Dry Goods and for Notions; from experience they have learned to feel confident of any purchase made at this firm's. To those who have not found out these useful points we appeal for patronage, for many cogent reasons. The advance season's dressy favorites in SMARTLY TAILORED SUITS for ladies. It's the store that lives up to its promises. It's the store that is constantly adding new leaves to the story of its real values.

GLOVES for opera, evening or street wear we have just opened. No one item of a woman's toilet is more distinctive than Gloves. Trefousse Gloves are par excellence correct. All lengths we have now ready for the asking. Special attention is called to the Pique, Heavy Glove for street. All Gloves adjusted at our counter by an expert of many years' experience.

TAFFETA SILKS, 18 inches wide, at 49c. These represent the rarest value ever seen in this city. The assortment in color is complete, and the silks have the wanted Chiffon finish.

Of course you want to see the 54-inch Cassimere-Finish Suitings in mannish mixtures. These we offer at $1.19, worth $1.50, to-day. All the new shadings at your service.

COATS, SUITS and SEPARATE SKIRTS are coming daily, as we prefer to have the stocks constantly replenished. Thus alone you get the style up to the minute. Take a daily peep at the stock.

Two marked favorites we note:

46-INCH MOHAIR TWILLED SICILIAN, Blue and Black, special value at $1.00. Such wear you never saw in a fabric.

SILK PETTICOATS, in all new shadings; of course, black notably. These Skirts we have sole control of, and they wear superbly. All sorts of Sateen and Mohair Skirts we exhibit upstairs.

The "Peerless" Patterns are simply marvels. We know of their goodness and absolute correctness. Now they are winners. No better in the world at any price—5c, 10c, 15c. When you want any goods hard to find come to 309 East Broad Street.

Smith was showing a park four, his groom insisted upon blowing a road coach horn. The crowd liked it and few were wise.

Blue and red went to Mrs. Grosvenor, with yellow to Mr. Dunlop. Mr. Smith drove out of the ring before the yellow could be placed upon his off-leader.

The open-to-all jumping class brought out the best leapers at the show. The ring looked very sporty with two jumps on a side, a brush and rail on one side, and brush and plank on the other. All four feet and performance only to count horses went once around. Up-to-date made one light rap. Lady Belle, the light jumper, had one rap. Luttrell's Eagle went clear. Nancy Lee refused and then went clear. Garnett Ripple went clear. Cygnets went clear. Grey Rock refused the first jump and then rapped. St. Nicholas, a gray gelding, something like Elevator, had two raps. Chapple Lee made a perfect performance. Forest Queen rapped behind. Mrs. Blair Johnson, on Archlight, rapped twice. The crowd applauded Mrs. Johnson to the echo. Lucy Sutherland made a clean record. Red Raven went without a touch. Red Raven went badly. Garnett Ripple won, with Lucy Sutherland, second. Red Raven, third, and Cygnets, fourth.

Horsy Trade Mark.

The horsey trade mark at the show runs to head gear. Mr. Courtland Smith, Virginia colored deer, was easily the most popular, but a dog stealer cap that adorned another rider seemed eminently proper when one considered the horse he rode.

Gentlemen who are perfectly at home on yachts are very much at sea upon horses. I heard a seafaring gentleman in riding clothes cry out to a friend in the ring "over haul him on the windward side," and the friend did it and came quietly to the anchor near the judges' stand.

Horses in harness, over fifteen and not exceeding sixteen hands, brought ten entries into the riders' list of those of considerable merit. Blue went to Little Jack Horner, red to Sultan, both Grosvenor entries. Yellow went to Mr. Dunlop's Chester, and white to Extra News.

The last class of the evening called for thoroughbred hunters. Seven answered the bugle. Tip Top knocked down the plank and rapped the rails. The Herald, ridden by Mr. Merchant, gave the crowd some amusement. The horse showed bad manners and could not be persuaded to go near the jumps. Garnett Ripple made a perfect performance. Alantius, ridden by Mr. Smith, Mr. Sidney Holloway, who owns the mare, is in Chicago. Lucy Sutherland went clean in a brilliant manner. One, two, three and four went to Mr. Courtland Smith's Garnett Ripple. Lucy Sutherland, Colonel Hawkins and Tip Top.

Troop C of the Seventh Cavalry, gave the same performance that it gave in Richmond, and the band played "Home, Sweet Home."

Splendid Building.
Norfolk has done herself proud in preparation as far as building is concerned, for no question of money has been considered. I was informed by the secretary of the show that the expenses of the association was up to to-night has been $25,000. These figures he told me were absolutely true.

The building is some three miles distant from the heart of the city and on the electric line running to Ocean View. It is an immense steel structure with a seating capacity of 3,500, and contains a ring somewhat larger than Madison Square Garden. There are excellent parking spaces for carriages and a large cafe has been fitted up to one end of the hall. It struck me that the lights were not as good as desired.

In looking over the horses I found that Richmond had seen all that are here except two good hunters, Eagle and Forest Queen, belonging to Mr. Luttrell, of Loudoun county, a big upstanding gray, owned by P. Passano, of Warrenton, and three hunters from the Portner stables at Manassas.

The Grosvenor stables are here as are a portion of Mr. Courtland Smith's—his other horses have been shipped to Chicago. Mr. Hogg's string is not here, nor is that of Mr. Sydney Holloway, for these two horsemen are showing in the Wexley City.

Miss Holloway is here with Mrs. Deltrich's Fleurette and Blizard, and Mr. Blair Johnson has Robin Adair and Archlight entered at this show.

Mr. Dunlop, of Petersburg, and Messrs. Brown and West have their strings in hand, and Mr. Blanchard Forbes has El Captain and a hunter entered.

Three Governors are an attraction offered by the show. Governor Montague of Virginia, Governor Warfield, of Maryland, and Governor Aycock of North Carolina, withal by a band, as well as Lieutenant Governor Willard, who is very popular in this section. The boxes that have been assigned to these distinguished guests have been decorated lavishly with the national colors.

Colored Man in Trouble.
Atticus Jeffries, colored, is charged with breaking and entering the Elgin Brown's, colored, house, on Lincoln avenue, yesterday, and stealing a trunk containing some wearing apparel and jewelry.

He was arrested yesterday evening and will appear in court this morning.

Struck by Street Car.
H. T. Cooper, colored, while driving a carriage early yesterday afternoon, was run into by a Broad Street car and hurled from his seat. The city ambulance was summoned and the man was removed to his home. His injuries are not regarded as serious.

Ida Rebecca Arnold.
Miss Ida Rebecca Arnold died at the home of the Female Humane Association yesterday, aged fourteen years. The funeral services will take place from the home, No. 733 East Leigh Street, at 11 A. M. to-day. Friends are invited to attend.

William McCauley.
William McCauley died Monday afternoon at his home, No. 133 Denby Street, Fulton, after a long illness, aged fifty-one years. His brothers, James, Joseph, and George W. McCauley, all of this city, survive him.

The funeral services will take place at 2 P. M. to-day from the Gospel Hall, Orleans Street, Fulton.

Judge Barksdale Here.
Judge William R. Barksdale, of Halifax, one of the best known of Virginia jurists, is in the city, stopping at Murphy's Hotel. Barksdale is passing through the city on route home from one of the Eastern counties of his circuit, where he has been holding court.

The Episcopal General Convention Comes Here in 1907.

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, October 25.—The triennial general convention of the Episcopal Church, which has been in session here since October 4th, was ended today, with a public service in Trinity Church.

From the pulpit Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, read a pastoral letter addressed to the Church at large. The communication, which consisted of more than three thousand words, considered the problems before the country, the pastoral divorce, the pastoral relation may be taken on and put off, is one of the menaces of American civilization, to the possible perils of which Christian people are as yet very imperfectly aroused. The letter made a plea for the permanence and security of the family and discussed other pressing questions.

Coming to Richmond.
Little business of importance was transacted at the final business sessions. A resolution permitting foreign congregations now in communion with the Church to use forms of service in their own tongue was adopted after a sharp contest. This explanation was inacted specifically for the benefit of Swedish congregations in Minnesota. The next convention will be held in Richmond, Va., in 1907.

The letter takes up what it terms "those two great problems which too supremely confront the republic," the labor question and the race issue. Of the first the pastoral declares the "what-ever labor organizations have accomplished they have mainly moved along lines which are the glory of our Democratic institutions."

A Serious Question.
Touching the race problem the letter, after referring to the appointment of a joint commission to investigate the question, says:

"If, by giving them (the negroes) freedom, we have only given them the power to work mischiefs, and if lynching has come to be defended as a necessary protection to families, then surely we are face to face with a situation at once desperate and dishonorable. We may not ignore it; we cannot ignore it. It is a part of our social situation, and the Church can have nothing to say about it, then, who simply disowns her duty and her master."

HEAVY CASUALTIES.
Interesting Reports as to the Dead Russians.

(By Associated Press.)
GENERAL OKU'S HEADQUARTERS, Sunday, October 23-1 P. M.—Via Funar, October 25.—It is reported unofficially that the right army buried 3,500 Russian dead, the central army 500 and the left army about 5,000. The armies average 600 yards apart and at places only fifty yards separate them. The men are constantly in the trenches and by placing their caps on their bayonets draw scores of bullets from their opponents.

The Russian artillery is reaching the Japanese lines and skirmishes are almost continuous.

usual enthusiasm on account of the decided tone of his telegram to the Mayor of Hull, on Monday.

Affair Denounced.
The speeches of members of the Cabinet and of the House of Commons to-day in different parts of the country voice the sentiment of Great Britain, and the spirit in which the utterances were made shows that for the moment party differences have been laid aside, and that the country is solidly behind the government.

Lord Selborne, at the pilgrims' banquet to-night, denounced the Dogger Bank affair in the most outspoken terms as an "inexcusable outrage," and "a terrible blunder, which would be impossible in either the British or the American navy."

In another place spoke in plain terms, saying that it was impossible to view the affair as other than the result of murderous intention or wicked negligence.

The post mortem examination of the bodies of the victims of the Dogger Bank affair was held to-day at Hull. The proceedings were purely formal, and no official announcement was made, but it is said that both of the dead men bore wounds inflicted both by machine guns and a larger shell.

Graphic Account.
The report of Thomas Carr, admiral of the fishing fleet, dated from "The North Sea," is a graphic account of the disaster. Carr's report says:

"We were fishing in latitude 55.18 north and longitude five east the night of October 21st. At 11.30 P. M. a great sea came up, and we were up on our lee bow, the wind being from south-southeast."

"One squadron passed by our lee starboard. The remainder, consisting of four battleships, steamed fast across our bows, throwing searchlights across our fleet. As soon as they got it underway they began firing on us, their projectiles flying all around and across our decks for a full quarter of an hour, some of the shots passing under our mainmast so unpleasantly near the men who were gutting down below."

"The Moulmein, Mino and Snipe all had shots passed through them, the two former vessels, being obliged to make sail homeward. I think two or three vessels did not board us in the morning, but I do not know whether they were practicing to get their hands in. There must be a mistake somewhere. They ought to have known we were only inoffensive fishermen."

Later, the ambassador went to the Foreign Office and formally presented a copy of his instructions. The note was couched in a moderate, but firm, tone. The note stigmatizes the act as inhuman, unjustifiable and deliberate, but makes no direct demands, reserving them pending the receipt of Russia's explanation.

Stated the Russian explanation, which the note recites the circumstances of the affair, saying that a fleet of steam trawlers carrying the established lights was approached by the Russian squadron, which threw searchlights upon the vessels and then deliberately fired at them. One vessel was sunk, two fishermen were killed, many were wounded and several vessels were missing after a bombardment of the fishing vessels, which lasted for a considerable time. The squadron then sailed off, leaving a vessel of small tonnage, which remained on the spot for six hours.

The note points out that the indignation of the British people, heightened by the inhuman conduct of the commanders of the warships in abandoning the sinking, crippled trawlers, was further emphasized by the failure of the Russian government to offer any real assistance, although it was impossible for it during all that time to have mistaken that true character of the fishing vessels.

The note concludes with the statement that the British government is awaiting Russia's explanation of this unjustifiable act, pending the receipt of which it reserves its demands.

Deliberation Charged.
(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, October 25.—A dispatch from Hull to the Times says that the correspondent, as the result of his investigation, is of the opinion that the attack on the British trawlers by the Russian Second Pacific squadron was a deliberate act, perpetrated with knowledge of its character.

KUROPATKIN

IN COMMAND

Is Made Commander-in-Chief of All Land Forces in East.

No fighting of any consequence by the Russian and Japanese armies in the vicinity of Shakhe is reported. Emperor Nicholas has designated General Kuropatkin to command all the Russian land forces in the far East. Alexieff has been continued in the office of viceroy.

GEN. KUROPATKIN IS MADE HIGH OFFICER
(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, October 25.—A Harbin dispatch states that Viceroy Alexieff, on Monday published an imperial decree appointing General Kuropatkin commander-in-chief of all the land forces in the East and retaining Alexieff in the post of viceroy. The Emperor also congratulates Viceroy Alexieff on the efficiency he has displayed in the formation, concentration and supreme direction of troops in the theatre of operations. Alexieff, in his proclamation, thanks the land and sea forces for the self-sacrifice they have shown, and says he is proud of the mark of confidence bestowed upon him by the Emperor in entrusting him with the supreme command of gallant troops. He hopes, in conclusion, that with God's help, their strong adversary will be defeated.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of the Richmond Sunday Times-Dispatch May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Absolutely Free by Mail.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fall to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

I cheerfully recommend and endorse the Great Remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, for kidney trouble and bad liver. I have used it and derived great benefit from it. I believe it has cured me entirely of kidney and liver trouble, from which I suffered terribly.

Most gratefully yours,
A. R. Reynolds, Chief of Police,
Columbus, Ga.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for many kinds of diseases, and if permitted to continue such suffering and fatal results are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. In healthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles; make your head ache and back ache, cause indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a yellow, yellow complexion, make you feel as if you were in a state of mental trouble, and may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away.

The cure for these troubles is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the world-famous kidney remedy. In taking
